

ASSEMBLY PASSES BILL TO ESTABLISH COUNTY DISTRICT

A bill which would set up in Alameda County a county-wide flood control and water conservation district was passed by the Assembly of the California State Legislature in Sacramento Tuesday. The measure, Assembly Bill 1431, now is before the state Senate for consideration.

Passage in the Senate is regarded as certain, although an amendment reducing the maximum county-wide tax from 5 cents per $100 assessed valuation to 2 cents is expected. City councils of Albany, Oakland, Alameda and San Leandro have protested the 5-cent maximum limitation.

The original measure, passed in amended form in the Assembly on Tuesday, was prepared by the Land Development Committee of Alameda County and the District Attorney's office. Several amendments were suggested by farming interests of southern Alameda County and were incorporated into the bill.

Locally, the proposal for a county-wide district received support because such a district can negotiate with the state and federal government for acquiring surplus water from the Central Valley.

It has been proposed that water be pumped from the canal at Tracy to flow from the Livermore-Pleasanton area into Alameda Creek and percolate into the gravels of Washington Township.

NO DULL SUMMER FOR CHILDREN OF ALVARADO

A three months' summer recreation and playground program for children of the Alvarado school district will be initiated on June 18, according to an announcement this week from the Alvarado Mothers Club, sponsors of the project.

The program will comprise five days a week of play activities including craft-work and games under the supervision of Hayden Cook of Redwood City, a graduate of Stanford University and former assistant coach at Santa Monica High School where he was playground supervisor.

This summer program, for which there has been a long-felt need by mothers who work during the summer, has been made possible not only through the efforts of the Mothers Club but of the following organizations: Alvarado Eagles, Paul Rivers Post V.F.W., Alvarado Chamber of Commerce, Alvarado Firemen, Alvarado Chapter of the Farm Bureau, and members of the Rhythm Winder Folk Dancing Club.

The play program will be in session six days a week, Monday through Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., and all children of the community are welcome to attend.

MRS. CARY ROBBED IN DARING THEFT

A burglar, obviously not aware that he was ransacking the home of an expert bear huntress, made off with $1723 in cash from the home of Mrs. Helen Cary of Niles Canyon Wednesday evening, while she was having dinner at the home of a neighbor.

Mrs. Cary, well known in Niles for her prowess with a .22, had just sold some cattle. It was the money from the sale of the cattle that the burglar found when he unlocked her front door and ransacked the bedroom. The money was hidden in a purse at the bottom of a hope chest.

Had Mrs. Cary been in the vicinity with her .22, it is likely that the thief would be nowhere else today but in a hospital—or jail. For Mrs. Cary's aim is sure, and steady. As proof of this, she brings home two or three bears every year from the wilds of the California mountains.

WATER SHORTAGE GROWS WORSE, DISTRICT REPORTS

The Alameda County Water District this week renewed its efforts for a state survey of water sources affecting Alameda Creek and Washington Township. Jack Prouty, district director, and H. F. Harrold, engineer, went to Sacramento Wednesday to confer with Senator Arthur Breed and Assemblyman Francis Dunn for an appropriation to finance the survey.

Developments recently in the water situation for Washington Township have been growing worse, according to W. D. Patterson, president of the district's board of directors. Two of the district's 18 wells have fallen below suction, requiring lowering of pumps.

Salinity of wells is steadily increasing and some crops have been lost because of salt-water pumping.

High level in wells this summer was only two feet above last year's low point, Patterson states. He expects the level to decrease as much as 20 feet more this year. The lower gravel strata, he states, contains less water than the upper levels.

The district board is maintaining close contact with federal, state and county authorities in its efforts to increase underground water storage in future years. It is supporting a proposed federal study of the Reber Plan.

SEVEN TOWNSHIP ENTRIES WIN AT LIVERMORE RODEO

Washington Township entries walked off with seven places in events at the Livermore Rodeo last week-end. High point for local groups was the Centennial Parade, which saw township entries taking first, one second and a third out of 18 parade events.

The Niles Sportsmen comedy float, an old Model T pulling a boat full of men fishing in the streets of Livermore, brought many laughs, and won the first place award for the best comedy entry in the parade. The Sportsmen also won a third place award in the commercial parade class.

Junior traffic patrols from Irvington and Alvarado won first and second places, respectively, in their competition with patrols from schools throughout the county.

First place in the Special Awards Division went to Joe Rosales of Washington High School. His entry as a one-man band won him the top honors in this classification.

In the rodeo events, Irvington's Joaquin Perry captured first place in Sunday's finals in the Palomino Parade Class and the amateur roping team of Emmet Sullivan, Niles, and Carl Zwissig, Decoto, got a third in Saturday's events.

The Southern Alameda County Horsemen's Association and several individual riders were entered in Saturday's Centennial Parade, with many township residents traveling to the rodeo and parade to cheer local entries.

THIS WEEK at a joint meeting of the Southern Alameda County Realtors Board and the Niles Chamber of Commerce at the International Kitchen, Mrs. Laura Whipple was awarded a certificate and made an honorary member of the Board for her outstanding work in civic activities during her long career as a real estate saleswoman in Southern Alameda County. Left to right are Fred Dean, president of the Board, who presented Mrs. Whipple with the certificate; L. Berscheid, program chairman; Mrs. Whipple; Leo DeCaen, director of the board; and John Brahms, president of the Niles Chamber of Commerce. —Register Photo

Laura Whipple Honored by Realtors; Acclaimed for Life of Civic Service

Mrs. Laura Whipple, the little woman who dreamed dreams—and put them into being—, who has done more perhaps for the development of Southern Alameda County than any other single person, was given the recognition she so richly deserves at a joint luncheon meeting of the Niles Chamber of Commerce and the Southern Alameda County Real Estate Board last Tuesday in the presence of over 50 people.

She was presented with a framed certificate signifying that she is the first honorary member of the realtors' board, affiliated with the California State Real Estate Board and the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

Fred V. Dean, president of the south county group, made the presentation.

Mrs. Whipple's long record of civic activities includes many things. Her efforts in behalf of bringing an adequate water supply to this area are well known. When it comes to discussing water levels, riparian rights, salt water infiltration, and other problems connected with water, she has few peers. Her knowledge of the subject is amazingly comprehensive.

For years she has stressed the importance of water to the successful growth of this area. At long last others are waking up to the need for water conservation, a need which she foresaw years ago.

A visionary, the gray-haired soft-spoken little woman has foreseen other things. Combined with her dreams, she has an abundance of energy and drive that have served to bring those dreams into reality.

Though some in the township may have forgotten it, and others—the newer residents—may never have known it, it was Laura Whipple who conceived the idea of establishing the Sunnyvale dirigible base.

She visualized the site at Sunnyvale as a busy field which would serve as a base for dirigibles, seaplanes and airplanes. One by one she induced the state and county officials, heads of civic organizations, and veteran aviators to visit the proposed base. One visit to the field was usually enough to win a booster. And Mrs. Whipple brought many visitors many times.

It was on December 4, 1928, that Mrs. Whipple instigated a meeting with Otto Hirsch of Irvington, and R. W. Pederson, Sunnyvale Chamber of Commerce president. The three then set out to seriously promote the idea of an air base at Sunnyvale.

The movement gradually gained momentum and the Sunnyvale site began to be considered as a

IRVINGTON USES HETCHY WATER

The town of Irvington began being served with Hetch-Hetchy water through the distribution system of the Alameda County Water District this week. This substitution for well water is being undertaken by the district as an experiment, according to W. D. Patterson, president of the district's board of directors.

For some weeks, in view of the constantly lowering level of water in the district's wells, conversion of the district's entire domestic distribution system to the Hetch-Hetchy water has been considered. However, the change has not been made because of increased costs.

This week the water district began a post card poll of all its consumers to determine whether or not they would be willing to pay 37½ cents per 100 cubic feet for Hetch-Hetchy water, as compared with the present 30-cent rate for well water.

As well as being a step toward conservation of local well water, the suggested change to Hetch-Hetchy is considered desirable by some persons because it is "softer" and therefore better for household use.

However, the increased cost of one-fourth is regarded by many users as too expensive.

Results of the postcard poll, and the degree of success of the experiment in Irvington, will guide the district directors toward decision on changing the supply.

U.P.P.E.C. HAS PICNIC

Over 30 members of Council No. 19, U.P.P.E.C. Secret Pal Club enjoyed their annual picnic at Alum Rock Park on June 8.

The day was pronounced a huge success by all those who attended, with plenty of food and fun, games and good fellowship, making it a picnic to be long remembered.

ELVAMAE ROSE 3RD IN QUEEN CONTEST

Elvamae Rose of Newark, candidate for queen of the Alameda County Fair, this week stood in third place with 83,080 votes, according to announcement of Joe M. Rose, chairman of the queen contest.

Running first place is Norma Andrade of Pleasanton; in second place is Barbara Archer of Livermore.

Votes for candidates are earned by sale of tickets to the spectacular stage production "Cavalcade," scheduled for the nights of July 1, 2, 3 and 4, at the Pleasanton fair grounds.

Miss Rose is being supported for queen by the Eden-Washington Farm Bureau Center.

Dolores Santos of Irvington, independent candidate for the honor, has not yet reported her ticket sale, according to Chairman Rose.

FARM BUREAU TO MEET TUESDAY

The final meeting for the spring session of the Eden-Washington Farm Bureau Center will be held Tuesday evening, June 21, at 8 o'clock.

Lester Gomes and Herbert Young are in charge of a fine entertainment program to be presented in the cafeteria of the Washington Union High School at Centerville.

Features of the program will include Don Spetti of Niles at the piano, and Mr. Ivaldi and son of Mission San Jose in some fascinating accordion duets. A sound movie on the Indianapolis Speedway and the Bendix Air Races will be shown.

Miss Elvamae Rose, the Eden-Washington Farm Center's entry in the Alameda County Fair Queen contest, will be introduced. All Farm Bureau members are urged to support Miss Rose in the contest.

HIDDEN VALLEY ROAD WILL BE RECONSIDERED

Reported action of the Alameda County Planning Commission last week in recommending county acceptance and improvement of the entrance road to Hidden Valley Ranch south of Mission San Jose resulted this week in the following news release from the office of the county Board of Supervisors. We publish the release as follows:

Acceptance of the Hidden Valley Road by the county was referred back to the Alameda County Planning Commission at a meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Alameda County held Tuesday.

According to Supervisor Chester Stanley, there has been an apparent misunderstanding on the part of the planning commission as to the procedure in putting the road into first-class condition.

Before the road could be accepted by the county, it would have to be put into such shape as to meet the requirements of Alameda County. If the road were put into such shape, the county could agree to maintain it, as the property owners agreed to do their share before asking the county to promised future maintenance.

After the matter is thoroughly explained to the planning commission, who will have the opportunity of reconsidering their first recommendation, it will again be taken into consideration by the supervisors.

The original recommendation of the majority of the members of the planning commission was that "upon the dedication to the county of a right-of-way not less than 50 feet in width and upon improvements of said right-of-way to county standards, it is the recommendation of the county Board of Supervisors that the road be accepted by the county." High School Grads Ready for Future

Before a throng of parents, friends, relatives, and old grads, 130 members of the senior class at Washington Union High School received their diplomas last night at impressive ceremonies in Memorial Stadium, thus concluding four years of academic work that will launch some of them into the business world and others into college.

In addition to the regular seniors, diplomas were awarded to three

CENTERVILLE C. C. PRESSES REQUEST FOR NEW STREET

A committee from the Centerville Chamber of Commerce will meet with the Alameda County Planning Commission at the court house in Oakland Tuesday afternoon in an effort to induce the county to extend Stevens Street across the Southern Pacific tracks to connect with Central Avenue.

The project, considered by the chamber as its most important in recent years, would relieve the congestion on Main Street and serve the town in both convenience and safety.

On the committee which will meet with the county commission are: Manuel Lewis, Allan Walton, Allen G. Norris, Fred Rogers, Charles Wauhab and Louis Cardoza.

Secretary Ralph Goodwin reported at Wednesday's meeting at the California Inn that the Division of Highways has turned down flatly a request that a branch of the driver's license bureau be set up in the township. The Division, in reply to another request of the chamber, also stated that the matter of crosswalks asked for the town will receive consideration.

President Dallas Paul appointed a committee consisting of Joe Jackson, Erle Hygelund and Joe Adams to study the proposal being considered by the Alameda County Water District that Hetch-Hetchy water be substituted for well water. The Hetch-Hetchy service would cost consumers 25 per cent more than present rates.

Support of the Niles Chamber of Commerce in asking Alameda County for a connecting road directly across Alameda Creek to make closer communication between Centerville and Niles was voted by the chamber on the motion of Judge Allen G. Norris. The Niles chamber proposes to extend I street to meet Santos Avenue.

GET WHAT YOU WANT AT THIS FOOD SALE

Something new in the way of food sales is being inaugurated by the Catholic Daughters of America. Their food sale, to be held on June 25 at Frick's in Niles, will not only allow the patrons to purchase food over the counter, but will permit them to place orders prior to the sale by telephoning Mrs. Nora Rogers, Niles 3596, chairman of the sale.

Orders may be phoned in not later than noon, June 24, for layer cakes, sheet cakes, sponge cakes, cookies, pies, salads, yeast rolls, or baked beans. Mrs. Rogers emphasizes, however, that the orders will not be held after 11 a.m. on the day of the food sale. If they are not picked up by that time, they will be sold over the counter. The sale starts at 10 a.m.

3600 FIRECRACKERS FOUND IN DECOTO STORE

Illegal sale of fireworks in Southern Alameda County today had been labeled "the heaviest in years" by local authorities, who today were continuing their raids against violators.

In the township, a Decoto merchant, Tony Lopez, 22, operator of a store at 504 Fourth Street, was cited after a group of youngsters said they had purchased the crackers at Lopez' store. Deputies found a cache of 3600 firecrackers in the establishment.

The Southern Alameda County Real Estate Board has invited the members of the Niles Chamber of Commerce to a picnic at Hidden Valley, Friday, June 24.

veterans who had successfully passed the general education development tests and otherwise met the graduation requirements, and 12 students of the evening high school, bringing the total to 145. (The complete list of graduates and their pictures are published elsewhere in the paper.)

For distinguishing themselves in the California Scholarship Federation, Tomiye Katsumoto and Elaine Joseph received awards which were presented by S. G. Scott, clerk of the Board of Trustees. The minimum for receiving this award is a requirement of at least six semesters with three A's and one B each semester.

For being the most outstanding seniors in scholarship, citizenship, and leadership, Al Durazo and Elaine Joseph received the Van Scoy awards, donated every year by Edgar A. Van Scoy of Centerville.

Those who received perfect attendance awards, presented by M. J. Bernardo, member of the Board of Trustees, were:

Raymond Bettencourt, 4 years; Florence Cheng, 2 years; Thelma Costa, 1 year; Barbara DeBorba, 2 years; Joan Dutre, 1 year; Ellen Freitas, 4 years; Tom Dunn, 2 years; Robert Hansen, 1 year; Betty Higginbotham, 4 years; Lena Horat, 2 years; Elaine Joseph, 4 years.

Tomiye Katsumoto, 3 years; Kaz Kawaguchi, 2 years; Hidakao Myamura, 3 years; James Moora, 2 years; Joelle O'Neill, 1 year; Francis Roderick, 1 year; Dolores Sa, 2 years; Eleanor Soares, 4 years; Rosemary Trindade, 2 years; Paula Zuniga, 1 year; George Silva, 1 year.

A. E. Alameda, president of the Board of Trustees, presented the diplomas to the graduates.

The invocation and benediction were performed by the Rev. T. A. Reardon, and the principal of the school, J. V. Gould, made the formal presentation of the Class of 1949.

The high school band and glee club contributed to the musical part of the commencement exercises.

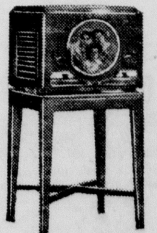

BURGLARY ATTEMPT BRINGS NO LOOT

The P. C. Hansen Lumber Co. in Centerville was the scene of an attempted burglary Wednesday night when an unsuccessful attempt was made to break open the office safe.

Entry was made by breaking the back door. The safe was damaged and the office ransacked. No loss was reported.

serious rival to San Diego. The next move was the uniting of all organizations working for the dirigible base. By this time the movement had assumed such proportions as to bewilder its originator, and she moved into the background.
But when the site was dedicated, this is what the San Jose Mercury-Herald had to say about our own Mrs. Whipple:
"Here's a special bouquet for the modest, unassuming little woman from Niles in whose brain was born the dream that materialized into the brilliant, epochal consummation of today. She was there, today—but shyly standing apart, in corners, out of the glare of the limelight, with her proud white-haired mother and father.

"Mrs. Laura Whipple she is—and Congresswoman Florence Kahn, whose indefatigable work at Washington was such a potent factor in the final success, calls Laura Whipple 'the real mother of Sunnyvale Dirigible Base!'
Mrs. Whipple could also be called 'the mother of Toyon Branch of Children's Hospital,' an organization which she not only started, but for which she has worked long and tirelessly for over 25 years.
Her other affiliations include the Alameda County Handicapped and Crippled Children's Guild, the Alameda County Health and Tuberculosis Association, and the Niles Civic Club, all of which have benefited immeasurably by her staunch support and inspired efforts.

Even now, in her later years and in spite of poor health, she retains the zestful imagination of youth. Her eyes light up when she talks about a golf course and country club house in the rolling hills of Mission San Jose, or an annual wild flower show in Niles that will attract hundreds, or a Niles Canyon that is beautifully, though naturally, landscaped into a regional park that will provide relaxation and recreational activities that are so urgently needed in this area.
If any of these things come to pass in the next few years, you may be assured that behind them all is Laura Whipple's indomitable spirit—a spirit that refuses to accept defeat, no matter what the obstacles.

Niles, Washington Township, Alameda County, owe much to Laura Whipple.
HIDDEN VALLEY

mendation of the planning commission that the Hidden Valley Dude Ranch Road be approved." The supervisors expressed the opinion that when the exact requirements are explained to the planning commission, it will probably have a better understanding of the entire situation.
After reconsideration on part of the planning commission, the matter again will be taken up by the supervisors at a regular meeting. It was stated that a 4-day traffic count revealed that some 422 to 666 vehicles were served on this road.

According to Supervisor Stanley, a second traffic count substantiated the fact that these figures are correct. This count was made following the original action on the part of the planning commission.
CONFINED TO HOME
W. D. Walker, salesman for Hodges Realty, Centerville, has been confined to his home for the past two weeks. His condition seems to be gradually improving.
The Township Register reaches more subscribers than all other local newspapers combined.

The would-be Freddy Francisco who sent The Register a post-card from the Balalaika in San Francisco reporting on seeing a Niles couple dining there tete-a-tete in the "intimate Continental atmosphere" had better be a little wary. The rumor was grossly exaggerated, according to the parties concerned, who, fortunately, were contacted before the item got into print.
How close this little item came to boomeranging on him the sender of it will never know!
AGREE?
I didn't compose it, but I can certainly concur in the sentiment of the following:
"My husband announces that we're dining out: I lay out his clothes and go dashing about undoing pin curls while I hunt for his hat; his shoelace is broken, but I can fix that. I slap on my powder and hitch up my hose. Finally he's ready—out the front door he goes. And while giving me looks of withering scorn, plops himself in the car and starts blowing the horn." ...
WHY A 'SPUD'
I'll bet anything you don't know how a potato happened to be called a "spud."
It came about during the war against potatoes in England 400 years ago, because of a society that was formed called "The Society for the Prevention of Unwholesome Diet"—SPUD.

GRADUATE HONORED

ARE WE ORPHANS?

In southern Alameda County we need water. We need it desperately. Our farms and a number of our industries require a great deal of water—and we have very little.

The Santa Clara Valley, which borders upon our county and of which southern Alameda County is actually a geographical part, feels the same dire urgency for water.

Tuesday of this week voters of the Santa Clara Valley Water Conservation District voted 4 to 1 in favor of a $3,000,000 bond issue for construction of a conservation reservoir on Coyote River.

On that same day, in Alameda County, our Board of Supervisors met with officers of various incorporated cities of Alameda County. All of the cities were either questioning or opposing passage of a bill now in the state legislature which would establish a county-wide drainage and flood control district in Alameda County. Our supervisors are aware of our water problem and have supported establishment of the district. They set about to convince the cities of the situation.

One councilman in a city to the north made the remark that "we are already being taxed too much for the benefit of the unincorporated area of this county."

These, in view of the urgency of our water needs, are fighting words!

In area and in potentialities, the unincorporated area of Alameda County exceeds the incorporated, populous northern part of the county. If Alameda County is to grow, it must grow southward. It is growing—and in its growth uses more and more water, a situation which in part is responsible for our present water shortage.

Opposition to the proposed county-wide district is not wise. The present opponents—city councils and city officials—all were given copies of the proposed bill months ago. They quite apparently were asleep and didn't look into the bill.

Then someone found that the bill carried a 5-cent maximum tax limitation. And they all woke up at the mention of that word "tax!"

It seems now that the bill, which has passed the Assembly without an opposing vote and is now before the Senate, will be amended to carry a maximum county-wide tax of only 2 cents. Actual cost of running the district probably would not require a levy of even that small amount. The tax would be insignificant on the average tax bill.

We would like to tell our city friends that the whole matter of setting up a county-wide flood control and water conservation district is as simple as 1-2-3. First, we need water. Second, we need a county-wide district in order to deal with the state and federal governments to get water. And third, it will cost a little money to do this.

In Santa Clara County, which is more largely agricultural than ours, four out of five saw the water situation correctly and voted a $3,000,000 bond issue. The city of San Jose supported the proposition. Down here in rural Alameda County we expect the support of our cities, too.

ONE LARGE COMMUNITY

"We are not eight small communities. We are one large community." An old-timer, and one with very progressive ideas, told us this not long ago. He's right.

Glance about you and you'll see that the towns that make up our township are working increasingly more closely together:

The Irvington Sanitary District annexed Mission San Jose and now the Mission has a bright future of residential development.

The Union Sanitary District in recent months has surveyed east and south of Niles in preparation for annexation at the proper time.

Voters throughout the entire township gave a strong "yes" vote on the establishment of the Washington Township Hospital District.

These all are big steps forward.

And in smaller ways, too, the various towns of the township are working closer together, helping each other.

When it was learned that Centerville could have a substation of the sheriff's office, Irvington, then Decoto, and then other towns all gave support to Centerville.

This week the Centerville Chamber of Commerce voted its support of the recently inaugurated effort in Niles to extend I Street across Alameda Creek to join Santos Avenue. This would increase highway safety at various intersections, and help both communities, bring the two towns closer together.

It's true:

"We are not eight small communities. We are one large community."

BENEFIT TEA AT IRVINGTON HOME

A garden party and tea, featuring home-made strawberry shortcake, will be held at the home of Mrs. Carl Christensen in Irvington this afternoon (Friday) from two to five o'clock.

The affair, sponsored by the Women's Church Association of the Irvington Community Church, is for the benefit of the building fund. Members of the church hope to eventually accumulate enough in the building fund to enable them build an addition to the church structure.

Present at today's tea will be the new pastor, Mr. Asa Collins. An interesting entertainment feature will be accordion solo selections by that talented young township musician, Vincent Wallace. The public is invited to attend. The total cost is 50 cents per person.

HIGH CHATTER

By MARGARET COLE

It's been a short year and a gay one; an almost kaleidoscopic whirl of games, dances, pageants, Vodvil, assemblies, etc. It's been the kind of year that should dim for the graduating class the memory of those fearful struggles with book reports, theorems and stuff like that there; the kind of year that will provide the boys and girls with many delightful memories when, in the words of every graduation orator that ever was, they are at grips with the cruel, cold world.

Let's dedicate this last column to the Class of '49 and here are my personal thanks for the material you have provided! You are a talented, colorful group and scholastically, athletically, and socially you have set standards that will make you long remembered in the history of Washington Hi.

Take Duffie, for instance! He's been prominent in almost every line of endeavor and here he is, crowning his long list of achievements with a scholarship at U. of C. Fred is one of about ten percent of the Senior Class who will attend college. Most of them are still uncertain about their future plans.

Bob Lizardo will go either to San Jose State or to St. Mary's and will major in psychology. Maybe so, but it's generally agreed that when Bob becomes famous it will be in connection with that golden voice.

It's a funny thing about voices! Bob, Duffie, Jack Gaunt and Jim Herring have been performing individually and brilliantly all these years and only in time for the last assembly did Mrs. Thornburg discover that they formed a perfect quartet. The assembly really surpassed all expectations and it's a wonder someone hasn't taken a shotgun to Sal after hearing some of those jokes, although he is to be congratulated on the one he put over on Duffie.

Did you know that Junior miss, Gerry Sharp, is also leaving us? She will be married on July 5 to Frank Scamman, class of '43. They will make their home in Irvington.

Girls gym will be different next year without the sparkling personality of "Teach." Yes, she's leaving us too. The girls wish you all the luck in the world, "Teach," and hope to see you around occasionally.

CUBS HAVE PICNIC

The Centerville Cubs held their first picnic last Sunday and enjoyed a lovely day at Alum Rock Park. Den Mothers and dads worked very hard to make the picnic the success it was, and the boys wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. Spiers, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bettencourt, Mr. and Mrs. George Bettencourt, Mr. and Mrs. George Roderick (Mr. Roderick is treasurer), Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gravestock, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Del Harris, Cubmaster Richard Mendonca, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Silveira (assistant cubmaster), and Mr. Tom Maloney. P.T.A. members were also invited. There were about 90 people, including Cubs and their families.

Den 5, accompanied by Mrs. Josephine Bettencourt and Mrs. Helen Bettencourt had gone up to the park around 8 a.m. to reserve the barbecue pits and seven tables. Den Mothers furnished salads, potato chips, pickles and the goodies that go with a weiner roast. The Cubs roasted their own weiners scout fashion while the adults were served cafeteria style. Mrs. Kenneth Pettibone was unable to attend but sent a salad and other goodies nevertheless, and it was much appreciated.

The day was spent swimming and playing on the play ground. Den chiefs who were present were Leonard Brown, Milton Rose, Logan Norris and Norman Coit. The Cubs and adults will long remember this fine picnic and are looking forward to another next season.

GRADUATION HELD

Diplomas were awarded last night to 145 students at the commencement exercises by A. E. Alameda, president of the board of trustees of the W.U.H.S. Dolly Silveira and Albert Durazo spoke and musical overtures were presented by a senior trio

WHERE THE SPIRIT OF SERVICE BEGINS

One Coast-wide school system is for telephone people only—and better service for the West is the result

2. On stubby poles like these, linemen learn to use their new climbing equipment. This is just one of the more than one hundred courses that telephone people study in towns large and small—and down the Coast. In 1948, thousands of employees received training. That means thousands of men and women better able to furnish good service to you.

4. Good service for you comes from telephone people who know their jobs. You can help them serve you best by making sure you always have the right number in mind before calling, leaving a little time between calls, giving the called person time to answer.

1. As this young lady learns to use a training switchboard, she'll also learn many things that will be mighty important to good service. All through her training she'll see how operators make courtesy and helpfulness a normal part of their jobs. And the same spirit is present as other telephone people learn their new skills.

3. On-the-job-training here in the West is typified by this "student" who is learning the workings of a trouble indicator frame—an automatic detective that constantly makes sure the lines on its "beat" are giving good service. Even experienced employees take refresher courses like this to keep up-to-date... and keep learning their way up the ladder.

WEDDING BELLS

A marriage license was issued this past week for Domingo Lopez Alcon of Decoto and Cecelia Caraballo of Hayward.

AT THE RODEO

Among spectators at the annual Livermore Rodeo parade were Mrs. S. Re, Mr. and Mrs. C. Ferrario and son, Joseph, myself and my children, Diane Rae and Rinaldo Sal, and "Chuck" Scarpiniti.

Ray McNulty was among the many who attended the rodeo in Livermore Saturday.

GOING-AWAY GIFTS

The sixth and seventh grades presented Mr. Graves of the Decoto Elementary School with a shirt and tie last week and his other sixth and seventh grades presented him with a baseball jacket. Mr. Graves, the coach here for some time, has accepted a position as principal at the grammar school in Concord. We wish him lots of success in his new position and I'm sure he'll be missed here as he was well liked and was a very fine coach and teacher. Good luck.

AT YOSEMITE

Friends in Decoto of Mr. and Mrs. F. Ponti of Centerville received greetings from them as they are vacationing in Yosemite for two weeks with a friend from across the bay. Enjoy yourselves, folks.

A FINE SHOW

The Geary in San Francisco is now featuring a musical, the Cabalgata, the first time in America from Madrid, Spain. According to some of the people who attended, a finer show has never been seen. Mr. and Mrs. M. Hidalgo and children, Manuel and Patsy, Mrs. S. Paniagua, Alvin Paniagua and girl from Santa Clara all enjoyed this show and then had dinner at San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. J. Arribas also attended the Sunday matinee. Mary Paniagua and Gloria Arribas with escorts attended this show on Saturday night.

ENTERTAIN
Mr. and Mrs. Al Rodriguez entertained guests from Rockland last Sunday.
WHY?
I wondered as I watched the parade at Livermore Saturday why Decoto wasn't represented while the rest of the township was. Wouldn't it be nice to see a float or some sort of representation in the coming parades? I think it would. So let's get on the ball!CONGRATULATIONS!
Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. George Fields and daughter, Phyllis attended the graduation of George Fields at Baxter Stadium at the College of the Pacific in Stockton. George received his degree of bachelor of music with a special secondary and was a member of the Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia fraternity (honorary music society), the Stockton Symphony Orchestra, and the College of the Pacific Conservatory Orchestra. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Fields of Eleventh Street, Decoto. He is a graduate of the Washington High School in Centerville, class of 1936. He has accepted the position of music instructor at the Placerville Elementary School. Congratulations and good luck.

GRADUATION PARTY
Henrietta Cambra will long remember her graduation party held last Sunday evening at her home on Eleventh Street. Thirty-eight persons helped her celebrate her graduation from the Decoto Elementary School with a weiner roast, cokes and all the trimmings. She also received many lovely gifts. Those present at the party were her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cambra of Decoto, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe DeMello Pine of Santa Clara, Shirley Cambra, Carol Ann Silva, Richard and Joseph Jr. DeMello Pine of Santa Clara, Sharlene Mae Mello of Mission San Jose, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Mello, Jerry Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rabello, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cambra, Mrs. Manuel T. Silva, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Muniz, Roberta Ann Steinhauer, Sandra Peixotto, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Cambra, Miss Eldina Vierra, Tony Pedro of San Leandro, Tony Vierra, Walter Cambra, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Kabrich and Patricia Kay and Tony Costa.TO NEW YORK

Secretary Eloy Cambra says 26 riders of the Southern Alameda County Horsemen's Association will ride this coming Saturday and Sunday in the Salinas Rodeo parade.500 PRESENT
Last Sunday about 500 persons attended the graduation exercises at the Decoto Elementary School. All the girls wore suits with corsages and the boys in suits with carnations. The flowers were donated by the Niles Floral Shop. Mrs. A. L. Costa and Mrs. L. Watkins should indeed be complimented on the fine work they did in making up the flower arrangement for the graduates. The program opened with the orchestra playing "Chorale" and "Come Thou Almighty King." Angelo Gonzales, Miguel Ramirez, Fred Vizcarro, Clarence Souza, Elias Lopez, Irene Navas, Gloria Quiroz and Juanita Elizarraye did the folk dances, the Korobuschka and the Oklahoma Mixer. Edward Sissneroz, who has also tried out for the television tests at the Centerville Theater, did some fine singing in "My Happiness" and "Cruising Down the River." Rachael Martinez was accompanist. The toy orchestra, consisting of the first grade, did a very nice job with "Shadows," "Amaryllis" and "Le-Setet." Mrs. Fairbanks, who patiently directed these children, should be proud of the fine results.

The program continued with the Glee Club singing "Carmencita," "Rosa" and Stoda La Pampa. The orchestra again played and while playing "Pomp and Circumstance," the graduates made their entrance. Beatrice Quiroz, class president of the first semester, made the salutation and Kiyoshi Katsumoto, president of the second semester, was the valedictorian. James L. Bunker, administrative assistant to the county superintendent of schools, in his address to the graduates, stressed the point that the Decoto Grammar School is now the largest in the township.

Mr. L. W. Musick, district superintendent of schools, presented the graduates their diplomas. The patrol awards were awarded by the California Highway Patrol.

The Decoto volunteer firemen, about 12 members, did a fine job in parking cars and collecting tickets at the gate and ushering people to their seats. The loud speaker system was donated by Fred Costa of the Mercury Radio Shop.

AT INITIATION

Twenty new members of the W Club of the High School were initiated at Santa Cruz last Saturday. Games were played, and many hot dogs and soft drinks put away. But during the initiation the new members had doses of castor oil among many other pranks. Henry Mendoza, George Pagan, Manuel Neves, Louie Torres, John Riveria, all from Decoto, attended. Coaches Jud Taylor, Clyde Voorhees and Irving Hird chaperoned the 45 members in all.

LEAVE FOR MID-WEST

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley and son of Railroad Avenue left Wednesday in their new car to visit relatives in Oklahoma, Arkansas and Missouri. They expect to be gone for one month.

RETURN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cunha have just returned from two weeks vacation at the Richardson Springs in Chico.

TO MONTEREY

Mr. and Mrs. A. Ferraria and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Rodriguez and daughter motored to Monterey in the Ferraria's new car. They also took in sights along the bay and the 17-mile drive at Carmel.

PINOCHLE CLUB

The Pinochle Club met last Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Parks of Decoto. Sixteen hands were played in all. Mr. and Mrs. J. Lane of San Leandro, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sparks, and Mrs. J. Morgan of San Lorenzo were guests of the evening. Mr. Jim Lane won the highest score, Mrs. Florence Wallace, second; Mrs. Lester Watkins, third; and Linda Cunha (also a guest) lowest score. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Don Morgan of San Lorenzo, Mr. Lester Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. John Mara of Niles. Delicious refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Mara in Canyon Heights.

LOSE TWO GAMES

After winning the first two games, Marlo Packing lost the next two games. Last Thursday they were defeated by Wedgewood by the score of 4 to 0. Tuesday night they lost a close game to L & V Farm Sales by the score of 6 to 5.

ST. JUDE PAST PRESIDENTSFETE HUSBANDS AT MEETING
The monthly past presidents dinner meeting of the St. Jude Institute was held at Pland's Villa in San Leandro last week.

Husbands were invited to attend the meeting, which E. L. Rose and Clifford Rogers report was a lot of fun.

OFFERS PRIZES FOR NEEDLEWORK

Needlecraft enthusiasts—including you men—will have an opportunity to win additional prizes, ribbons and even a gold trophy for winning work exhibited at the Alameda County Fair, June 29 through July 9, Mrs. Ann Silveria, chairman of the Home Economics Department, announced this week.

The new prizes and classifications, over and above the previously announced awards set up for winners in the department, are part of a national contest being staged by the National Needlecraft Bureau, and offers the national winner a $500 cash prize and an expense-free trip to New York City.

Alameda County exhibitors will automatically be entered in the contest by showing their work here, according to Mrs. Silveria.

June 20 at 1 p.m. is absolute deadline for entry of any articles in the Home Economics Department.

PEREZ BROS. MOVE TO NEW LOCATION

The Perez Bros. Grocery moves today to its new location at 421 First Street, Niles, with the grand opening scheduled for today and tomorrow.

The new building has a blue tile and white stucco front, with two large plate glass display windows. The inside is finished in white stucco, and has fluorescent lighting throughout. It is larger than the old store, which will allow a greater variety of foods to be carried.

Trinidad and Reyes Perez opened their first grocery store in Niles a little over ten years ago, and continued to operate it at 327 First Street until they recently acquired the newly remodeled building one block north.

Before coming to Niles in 1938, the brothers lived in Newark for 15 years.

BUYS PROPERTY

R. A. Lewis has purchased the G. Norton property in Centerville, and expects to move in before July 1.

FARM ACCIDENT RATE IS HIGH

On California farms, a worker meets with a disabling accident every 10 minutes of the working day, according to Ray B. Wiser, president of the California Farm Bureau Federation, in the June issue of the 'California Safety News.'

Statistics reveal that 13,407 farm hands were disabled and 54 killed in California last year. To these casualties must be added the accidents occurring among self-employed farmers and their families. The combined total would probably be doubled. If this trend continues, one out of every 29 farmers will have a serious accident this year, states Wiser.

According to the U. S. Department of Commerce, farmers lose nine per cent of their gross income from accidents. This means that the average California farmer pays approximately $972 for accidents each year.

The United States Weather Bureau reported more than 10,000,000 different local weather observations during 1948, according to the Britannica Book of the Year.

PAYS TO SAVE WATER

Many economical practices in irrigation learned last year when water and power were scarce will save much more money for irrigators any time, says Farm Advisor Lee C. Benson.

While the amount of water to use and methods of application will vary for different crops, Benson made these suggestions to apply in a general way to irrigation in Alameda County.

Examine the soil in the root zone of the crop under production. If moisture is available, do not irrigate yet. Make this examination in several of the driest places of the field. In shallow soils the examination must be made at depths above the hardpan. In deep soils it should be made in the third or fourth foot.

Run the water only long enough to permit penetration to the depth of the roots. The farm advisor will supply information about rooting depths of different plants for growers requesting such knowledge. One inch depth of water in a check or basin should wet clay loam four to six inches, loam eight to ten inches.

Shorten the lengths of irrigation furrows as much as practical to avoid excessively deep penetration near the head ditch or pipe line.

Allow enough head of water to cover the area as rapidly as possible without erosion and then reduce the head to hole the water until it can penetrate to the required depth for the particular crop irrigated. This prevents the water penetrating too deep at the upper end before the lower end is sufficiently wet.

Y.M.I. MEMBERS ENJOY SAN JOSE BARBECUE

Twenty-seven members of the Washington Township Council, Y. M.I., journeyed to San Jose last Saturday night for the district Y.L.I.-Y.M.I. barbecue.

Weeds take water needed by the crops. Keep them down.

Watch the water at all times and repair leaks and breaks promptly to avoid waste. Much water is wasted that could be saved without detriment to crops.

FAIR SCHEDULES PUPPET SHOWS

News to delight the hearts of children of all ages was released by Dr. Paul E. Dolan, president of the Alameda County Agricultural Fair Association, with announcement this week that one of the most noted puppet shows in the country will be at the Alameda County Fair.

Grace Wilder, past president of the National Association of Puppeteers and daughter of Playwright Thornton Wilder, has agreed to stage six shows daily throughout the fair dates of June 29 through July 9.

The diminutive play-actors will be put through their paces by Miss Wilder and her assistants in a specially built theater on the new midway between the grandstand and the carnival area, near the Court of the Four Seasons.

At the LIBRARY

By ELAINE HOWE

Now that the weather is getting to be the way California weather ought to be, the outdoor life beckons to us all. In the hours spent in the open the wonders of nature are all around—if we will but observe.

To help you know more about this teeming world about you, we recommend any of the following books. "The Insect Guide" by Ralph Swain is written in non-technical language and helps you to recognize the larger families of insects, how to distinguish one from another, and how to find, capture and preserve different kinds of insects. There are fifty pages of colored illustrations which will help you to recognize a Sphinx moth when next you see one.

Then looking up from the insects you may enjoy watching the birds of the air. A truly valuable aid is "Field Guide to Western Birds" by Roger Peterson. It is simple, convenient and uses the system of identifying birds when seen at a distance—which is after all the way most of us see birds. Here too are many good pictures in color from different angles with clear details of wing and tail markings. This is especially useful to newcomers to the west, as it includes all the birds found west of the Rockies.

Looking a little higher—craning the neck in fact—one may observe the stars, so bright and clear on our lovely mild evenings. James Pickering wrote a very useful handbook for the layman, "The Stars are Yours." He emphasizes those objects in the sky which any human with average sight can see without a telescope. If you'd like to know more about the solar system—in plain fashion—his stories of the planets, meteors, nebulae, even theories of life on other planets, are quite readable. Charts that are easy to use show the position of the stars month by month throughout the year.

These books are in the Niles Branch, but if any of the readers in other towns in the township are interested in any of the books I mention, be sure to see your Branch Librarian. She may have another just as good, and she can always borrow this book for you from us. The County Library has over forty branches and we all borrow from each other frequently.

MISSION SAN JOSE NEWS

By LOIS BOTTENBERG

BRIDAL SHOWER

Saturday evening at the Mission Grammar School our own little Marie Silva and Herbert Santos were tendered a joint Mr. and Mrs. pre-nuptial shower with Mrs. Teenie Al-white three-tiered brides cake stood in the center of a lace covered table with a huge bouquet of perennial sweetpeas back of it and all the lovely gifts from a hand crocheted bedspread from Marie's mother to a pair of cute loving bunny salt and pepper shakers standing in glad array around it. The young couple will be married on July 9 at the St. Joseph Church here in Mission San Jose.

NEW FIREMAN

Glenn Bottenberg was placed in the ranks of our volunteer fire department at the meeting on Tuesday evening, taking the place of Hank Silva who now makes his home in Irvington.

WEEK-ENDERS

Over the week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Murray of Ellsworth Street were Mr. and Mrs. Martin and family, former residents of Soquel and now making their home in Rouge River, Oregon. On Sunday Mrs. Manning of San Francisco, a girlhood chum of Mrs. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Pettit of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Wittmeier, all of Oakland, and Mr. Rebuffo and Mr. Layher of Soquel were dinner guests at a sort of farewell party for the Martins.

AN IMPROVEMENT

The former site of the post office here in the Mission is undergoing a complete overhaul and face lifting. It will improve that end of the town when it is finished.

MORE IMPROVEMENTS

Miss Hyde's new place on the corner of Mission-Irvington highway is progressing nicely and it, too, will make a wonderful change in our little town.

NEW PAINT JOB

We almost forgot the lovely new paint job which the St. Joseph Church received, the sparkling beauty of the crosses atop it, and inside it has been given new floor coverings and decorations.

NOW IN IRVINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Santos are now making their home in Irvington at the former residence of Leland Telles and family. Since the death of their wife and mother, he and the boys are making their

Also resigned is Miss Mary Roberson who has taught biology here for the past year. This position is unfilled but all other members of the faculty are returning next year.

GUILD LUNCHEON

The St. James Guild held its last meeting before the summer vacation at the home of Mrs. R. A. Sparrowe in Centerville on Wednesday, June 15, beginning at 12:30. As in the past years the meeting was in the form of a luncheon followed by a meeting and then cards.

The Ministers Association of Washington Township will be reorganized at a supper meeting to be held at the Centerville Presbyterian Church at 6:30 p.m., June 20. Arrangements for the dinner are being made by the Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian Church and the St. James Episcopal Church. Pastors of churches in neighboring towns in the township will be invited to attend, according to Howard Steward, Presbyterian pastor.

GRASS FIRE

The hillside to the east of the Heights is black again after last Saturday's quickly spreading fire. This has become an almost annual event and attempts to discover the cause have met with the usual conflicting statements from a number of small children. One small boy excitedly told his father and mother that a man had built a fire and it was "getting real big." The child could not, however, identify the man in the crowd that appeared on the scene with the coming of the fire engines. The Niles fire department did a splendid job in controlling the fire which was spreading with frightful rapidity.

SOFTBALL DRAWS LARGE CROWDS TO NIGHT GAMES

It's nip and tuck in both leagues of the Washington Township Softball League at the end of the third week of play.

In the American League, Vilela's and Kleine's are both undefeated. Kraftile and L & V Farm Sales are tied for top position in the National League with 3 wins and 1 loss each.

Playing before crowds averaging 300 nightly, the doubleheaders this week saw the following results: On Monday Wedgewood won over Frick's 7-3; the Native Sons went down to a 10-4 defeat by Central Chevrolet.

Tuesday Vilela's won over Westvaco 8-2, and L & V Farm Sales beat Marlo in a close one, 6-5.

In Wednesday's games Pacific States Steel won on a forfeit from the Native Sons, who were a man short for their team. The game was played anyhow, with a borrowed player, for the paying guests. Kraftile won easily over Wedgewood, 10-0.

Sierra Playgrounds

California's "back yard" is full of them

More than 120 lakes in the Sierra and Cascades are man-made. They were built by P. G. and E. as reservoirs for 56 hydroelectric plants whose generators are spun by falling water. Our reservoirs capture melting snow in the Spring, prevent damaging floods and wasteful runoff of precious water, and provide regulated release of the water for year-round stream flow. Many popular fishing streams otherwise would be dry during the summer and fall vacation season. All this, and low-cost power too!

At many places, such as beautiful Lake Almanor nestled at the base of Mount Lassen, P. G. and E. development has created resort areas enjoyed by thousands.

P. G. and E. works closely with the Fish and Game Commission... building fish ladders, planting trout, maintaining stream flow. We are fish conservation enthusiasts.

For the record
Hydroelectric plants do not consume water...they borrow it temporarily, then return it to the stream.
"Hydro" aids irrigation...holding back floodwaters in the Spring and making the water available when it's needed most in the dry crop-growing months.

Farewell Party for Thomas Jacksons

Tommy, Betty and little daughter, Karen Jackson, of Niles, were pleasantly surprised by many of their friends who dropped in on them before train time Saturday to wish them a pleasant journey to North Carolina. Cocktails were served at the home of Betty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Burr.

Seeing them to the train were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lemos, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Stivers and Mr. and Mrs. Burr.

The visitors went through the train and pictures were taken of the party seated in the compartment occupied by the Jacksons. Later the group drove to San Leandro where they dined at Onstads, then ended up at Castro Gardens to dance to the music of the Silvatones, the orchestra being led by our own Albert Silva of Niles. While there a number was dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. Stivers in honor of their twenty-seventh wedding anniversary.

Luncheon Guests

Mrs. Jack Rees invited several localities to luncheon at her Hayward home last Wednesday. They included Mmes. Theo Overacker, Jessie Jones, Ruth Vieira, Charlene Emerson, Edith Mackintosh, and Ruth Robbins.

Moves to Niles

Miss Della Prime, a resident of San Francisco for over 30 years, has moved to Niles to make her home with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Baldwin.

Newlyweds Living In Irvington

Married June 4 at the home of the bride's parents (Mr. and Mrs. George Scamman), honeymooners Stanley and Virginia Kearley have returned from the southern part of the state and are now living in the home they bought on San Jose Avenue in Irvington.

The bride, the former Virginia Scamman, exchanged her wedding vows in her white going-away suit. For the ceremony she carried a white Bible, with a streamer of orchids. Her sister, Mrs. Charles Jones, was her attendant. Best man was the bride's brother, Frank Scamman.

The Rev. Donald Kirkbride performed the three o'clock ceremony, with incidental wedding music and the wedding march being played by the bride's aunt, Miss Elizabeth Scamman, who had also played the wedding march for the bride's parents when they were married.

Following the nuptial rites, the 60 close friends and relatives of the pair attended a reception which was held at the Jones home in Irvington.

The new Mrs. Kearley is a graduate of Washington High, and also attended San Jose State. She has been employed at General Motors in Oakland.

Her husband, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kearley Sr. of Alameda, attended the Alameda schools and is presently a student at Aero-Tech at the Oakland Airport.

Raymond Benbows Feted at Anniversary

Friends of the Raymond Benbows of Irvington gathered at their home last Saturday night to help them observe their 25th wedding anniversary at a pot-luck supper, held on the lawn, with Mrs. Oliver Benbow acting as hostess for the occasion.

Those who were present included the Benbow's daughter and son, Ebba Rae and Lester, and the Oliver Benbows, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. George Scamman, Mr. and Mrs. George Beardsley, the Bill Benbows, the Wesley Hammonds, and Miss Nelda Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Adams, Mrs. Lillie Robinson, Ken Calhoun—all localities—and Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Tully of Los Gatos.

To Wed on June 26

Miss Eldena Vierra, daughter of Antone B. Vierra of Niles, will be wed on Sunday, June 26, to Mr. Antone Largarticha of San Leandro. The ceremony will take place at the Corpus Christi Church at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in Niles.

Miss Vierra is a Washington High School graduate and is employed at Friedens in San Leandro.

A reception will follow immediately after the ceremony at the Club Iberico Beneficio in San Leandro. —Irene Mendonca.

Visitor from Kentucky

Leave for Florida

Mr. and Mrs. John Galvin of Niles are leaving today (Friday) for Panama City, Florida, where they will visit their daughter and son-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. James Stanhope. Panama City is right on the beach, so the weather won't be too hot, Mrs. Galvin said. They expect to be gone a month.

MARJORIE BRUNELLI-DON PLUMMER RITES AT NUPTIAL MASS TOMORROW IN NILES

Prior to her wedding, which will be held tomorrow (Saturday) at Corpus Christi Church in Niles, Marjorie Brunelli has been the honoree at a host of social functions. Two more showers were given for her last week. One, a luncheon and kitchen shower, was given by her aunt, Mrs. Lewis Varni, at her home in Lafayette, which was attended by localities Mrs. Leon Solon, Mrs. John Re, Mrs. James O'Connor, and the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Romeo Brunelli.

The other was a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Donald Chapman of San Leandro for several of Marjorie's friends whom she had known in high school, including Mrs. Thomas Jackson, Mrs. Anthony Bettencourt, Mrs. Gene Schoal, Mrs. Lawrence Gronley, Miss Harriet Dias, Miss Winifred Dias, Mrs. Calvin Oliveira, and Barbara and Juliette Re.

Marjorie and her fiancé, Don Plummer, will exchange vows at a nuptial mass, with Mrs. Peter Smith of San Francisco as matron-of-honor, Mrs. Calvin Oliveira as bridesmaid, Mr. Jack Smith doing best man honors, and Richard Brunelli performing the ushering duties.

Following a month's honeymoon up to Lake Louise in Canada, the newlyweds will return to make their home in Centerville. Mr. Plummer is connected with Central Chevrolet there.

KNOT TYING PLANS ANNOUNCED BY NANCY BISHOP AND CHARLES WILLIS

Wearing a diamond ring on that important finger is Miss Nancy Bishop of Niles, daughter of Mrs. Marie Bishop. Her fiancé is Charles "Chuck" Willis, son of Mrs. Alvin Willis of Niles, who presented her with the ring last Friday.

Nancy, a graduate of Washington High School, has just completed her freshman year at San Jose State College, preparatory to entering Highland Hospital for nurses' training in the fall. She is a member of an old Niles family, her great-grandmother, the late Emilie L. Chittenden having lived here many years ago. Her grandmother is Mrs. Gertrude Burtchall of Oakland, also a former Niles resident, and her mother, Mrs. Bishop, was also reared in Niles.

The young bridegroom-to-be is a graduate of Washington High. He is a Navy veteran and attended San Jose State for a while, but is now working at Schuck's.

No definite date has been set for the wedding.

GERRY SHARP AND FRANK SCAMMAN TO SAY 'I DO' AT JULY 5 CEREMONY

They expect to be moved in by July 1.
